

OUTSIDE NEWS FROM WIRE AND CABLE

Paris.—Two more bodies, horribly mutilated, recovered from pit where they were caught in recent collapse of Paris streets by floods.

Toledo.—Re-election of Head Consul A. R. Talbot, Lincoln, Neb., and other officers of administration ticket put to utter rout insurgent cohorts in Modern Woodmen of America.

Quebec.—Two bodies, one believed to be Mrs. Mardall, 40, the other man named Grisswell, Lethbridge, Alberta, recovered from lost liner Empress of Ireland.

Washington.—If Russia does not object Pres. Wilson expects to name Geo. T. Marye, millionaire, San Francisco, ambassador to that country.

Denver.—Jury in second trial of Robert Owen, on charge of leading London.—Although for first time Premier Asquith received a deputation urging "votes for women," he flatly refused to accede to their demands that he introduce the suffrage bill in parliament.

Wrexham, Wales.—Fire destroyed railroad station at Coedpoeth. Suffragets suspected.

Harrison, Mo.—James Walls and Hodge Larkins quarreled over debt of $1. Walls shot and killed Larkins; Larkins' 11-year-old son then shot Walls to death.

Denver.—Second trial of Robert Owens on charge of leading crowd which kidnaped Rev. O. L. Spurgeon ended in disagreement; third trial to begin July 6.

Boston.—Lawrence Robinson, notorious criminal, who shot and killed Inspector Norton in crowded restaurant and was himself wounded, recovering. Also wanted in Grand Rapids, Mich., on charge of triple murder.

Yonkers, N. Y.—Yacht Tourist crashed into stone barge and sunk. Crew taken off. No passengers on craft.

Sioux City, Ia.—Fire swept away business section of Quimby. Loss $50,000.

Hasburg, Germany.—Third Hamburg-American liner, the Bismarck, a sea giantess larger than the Vaterland, launched.

Washington.—Reported John L. Ames, collector of customs at Chicago since 1906, tendered resignation to Sec'y of Treasury McAdoo.

Sioux City, Ia.—John Tankin, 107, and wife, 97, celebrated their 78th wedding anniversary.

Pittsburgh.—Pres. J. C. Schaplin, Colonial Trust Co., admitted $85,000 had been mysteriously stolen from Freehold's bank deposit in Colonial's vault.

Grand Rapids, Mich.—By adoption of revised honorary membership, International Ass'n of Police Chiefs dropped name of Detective Wm. J. Burns.

Detroit.—Body of George de Massey, 45, soldier of fortune, man of letters and evidently officer of English marines, found in office. Suicide.

Schnectady, N. Y.—Sack containing dismembered body of middle-aged woman found floating in Mohawk river. Head, arms and limbs missing.

Butte, Mont.—Chas. H. Moyer, pres. Western Federation of Miners, here. Believes "seceders" will co-operate with him to put union on sound basis.

New Castle, Ind.—Under circumstances similar to disappearance of Catherine Winters, Edna Bundy, 11, disappeared yesterday morning.

Dillonvale, O.—Declaring they had insulted the American flag, citizens forced I. W. W. agitators to parade flag after several had been arrested.

Washington.—On ground that he was illegally elected, House ousted Rep. Dyer, Republican, St. Louis.

Vienna.—Private bank of Pleva & Co. failed for $7,000,000.

mob of men who assaulted Rev. O. L. Spurgeon, Des Moines, anti-Catholic leader, disagreed.